

Sue's News

Monday June 28

And tomorrow we are finished!! It has been a great 12 days. Thanks to all the lead referees and staff who help make it so. Thanks for 'taking care of business'. Thanks to everyone for all your hard work.

SHIRT of the DAY

Tuesday June 29 – New gray AAU polo (or white certified)

FINALS DAY

Tomorrow is the last finals day. Remember the losing team must stay to officiate on the same court. We do not have any extra referees to cover any team that leaves, so make sure you tell both teams one of them must stay to officiate. If you allow the losing team to leave, then you are responsible for finding replacements.

Tomorrow's matches can start as soon as all 3 teams are ready to play.

TRANSPORTATION

The buses will make continuous loops from the hotel to the convention center and back to the hotel tomorrow. Only vans will go to the West concourse.

REFEREE PROFESSIONALISM

Even though it is the final day, we still have to remember our manners and treat coaches and players right. It is not necessary to belittle players or think we need to teach them how to play. You must maintain a professional demeanor before, during and after your match.

It is not necessary to 'fuss' at the scoresheet helpers. They have instructions that only 2 scoresheets can be handed out a time.

COIN TOSS

Remember at the coin toss, the winning team has choice of serve, receive or side of court. If the winning team chooses serve or receive, the other team then gets choice of court.

CHECKOUT PROCEDURES

Before you leave the tournament, you MUST check out. You can begin the checkout process after 10 am. Match counts will NOT be updated until after 10 am. If you prefer to checkout in person, stop in the office sometime after 10 am or before you leave for the day.

If your match counts are correct according to the match counts posted on the website, you can use the online Express Checkout form and you do not need to go to the office.

If you have a discrepancy, you must submit an online request form noting the issue. Do NOT leave until you have been contacted with a resolution to your issue.

No referee should enter the assigning room unless you have been given permission.

If you are leaving at the end of this session, make sure you leave your nametag (for next year). You can leave your nametag at the des

Thank you to everyone for making this another great tournament. The staff appreciates your dedication to making this a great event!!

Thanks for being here and safe travels! Hope to see you next year!
