

2021 Asics Show Me Qualifier Safety Protocols

Due to the current circumstances with the COVID-19 pandemic, our priority at the Asics Show Me Qualifier is to take the appropriate steps to provide a safe return to the court for all participants. We have been in constant contact with the Kansas City Convention Center, Visit KC and health authorities to make sure all appropriate precautions are set into place for the 2021 Asics Show Me Qualifier. Our main goal is to provide a safe environment for all attending and to do so the following guidelines will be put into place.

We ask that all participants and attendees read through the following protocols carefully to understand the new guidelines and best practices. As we work to limit touch points and provide a safe environment, please be patient as we implement new procedures to the 2021 Asics Show Me Qualifier. These procedures are put into place for your safety as well as others and that is why it is important that we all comply with the following protocols. These safety protocols do not in any way guarantee or prevent an attendee against the possible exposure to COVID-19 during the attendance of this event. All those in attendance voluntarily assume all the risks of exposure. Attached is a letter from our Medical Provider with important information on attending Show Me as well as tips to keep in mind throughout the event. We are closely monitoring COVID-19 as we progress toward the event dates. Please visit our website to get more up to date information and available resources.

The following safety protocols are subject to change and are based on the most current guidelines provided by the Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), facility and local authorities.

• FACILITY ONSITE PLANS:
