SHIRT of the DAY

Friday June 24 – can wear any Dig Pink shirt that does not have a competing logo on it (ie, Crossroads, Big South, etc) or white certified polo

SCORESHEETS

We are having an unusual amount of scoresheets being turned in that do not have all of the information recorded. Please check your scoresheet for its completeness before you turn it in.

REFEREE BEHAVIOR

We still have not found all of our common sense. I think it's being drowned in the pool. I need to remind all of you that if you are not of legal drinking age, you shouldn't be drinking. Yes, you can have fun, but let's don't let our fun get out of hand. It's much better to spend time in your room than to get in trouble at the pool

 There is a noted shirt of the day. You MUST wear the shirt. You cannot just wear a jacket without the shirt of the day under it.

 I am getting many complaints that referees are not accepting protests from the coach. If a coach lodges a protest, you should listen to the info and decided if the protest is valid. You can deny the protest. But if the coach disagrees, just call the lead refs and let them address the issue. It is not a mark against you because you allowed the protest.

 Teams cannot play with 5 players.

MATCH STARTING TIMES

The first match of each wave MUST start on time. That means the first match on a court starts at 8 am or 3 pm. Matches may start up to 15 minutes early within the wave, but the first match must start ON TIME.

If a court is very early, remember the court cannot start without you. Leave the court and go to the championship desk and wait until it is time to start warm-ups, then the coaches will not be bugging you to get started.

SANCTIONS

Only the R1 can issue cards. The R2 can request a card, but cannot issue the sanction. Once a card or a warning is issued, the R1 needs to call the captain over to explain what the card/sanction is. That's the important part. Then allow the captain to return to the coach to explain.

HOTEL BEHAVIOR

Please be respectful of other hotel guests. There are other people at the hotel besides our group. It is not cool for you to be extremely loud and it is unacceptable for you to be cussing, swearing and cursing (even if it is when you are joking around).

The hotel has rules, just like every other place of business. When they say the pool is closing, it's closing. Do not fuss at the pool staff. If you want something changed, let me know and I will see what I can do.

Keep a lookout for our lost common sense. I'm sure we will find it soon. You all have been doing a great job! Keep up the good work!!
